

Summer School Program

1. The Name of the Program

International Seminar on Intellectual Property Law

2. Brief Introduction

The International Seminar on Intellectual Property Law held by the School of Law at Xi'an Jiaotong University is open to MA students, PhD candidates and young teachers interested in intellectual property law. This program aims to broaden your vision and enrich your knowledge on international intellectual property through the lectures given by distinguished experts from world famous law schools or research centers. Their excellent lectures will cover the basic theories and some frontier issues related to intellectual property law practice. We believe that everyone will benefit a lot from the program.

3. Purposes

(1) Provide students with such knowledge as a) basic theories, the status quo, the interaction and the development of intellectual property law; b) intellectual property right management and its current situation; c) relationship between intellectual property and trade; d) intellectual property transferring and related legal provisions.

(2) Enhance the communication and cooperation between world famous law schools and research centers and our law school.
